

Visit the Knesset and the Kotel without leaving home

The Jewish Pluralism Watch Education Department is excited to offer virtual programming featuring leading Israeli Members of Knesset, key policy makers and political activists in a variety of virtual seminars and workshops

The Knesset

The Politics of Governing a Democratic Jewish State

This session will include an introduction, a virtual tour of the Knesset and a meeting with a member of Knesset + Q&A

We are happy to work with you to craft a tailored educational program including a half day online seminar, or a lecture series.

The Kotel

The Western Wall as a Case Study of Jewish Pluralism in Israel

This session will include an introduction, a virtual tour of the all sections of the Kotel and a meeting with an activist from "Women of the Wall" + Q&A

Religion & State

Introduction to Issues of Religion and State in Israel

Focusing on a topic of your choice: LGBTQ rights, Shabbat, Conversion, Marriage & Divorce, Kashrut, Gender, and a meeting with an activist or journalist + Q&A

- Each session will last between 60 to 75 minutes
- Sessions are perfect for: Synagogues, Adult Education Programs, Teen & College groups, Jewish Federation professionals, Camps
- The price of one session is $250
- To schedule a program, please contact Devora Greenberg, Director of Education, Masorti Movement : Devora@masorti.org.il • +972-25658015

www.mishmar.org.il

The Jewish Pluralism Watch (JPW), under the auspices of the Masorti (Conservative) Movement in Israel, is a non-governmental organization that tracks the activities of the Knesset pertaining to religion and state, Jewish pluralism, and equality. JPW works to encourage public discussions of matters regarding religion and state and to promote pluralism through civic engagement and the democratic process.